upcoming sermons

September 19—The Church exists to fulfill the Great Commission. Jesus commanded all Christians to go and make disciples. The church is not a county club where we meet for our own edification; we are a mission station. We meet to then go out into the world and make disciples. We will learn about what it means to make disciples and discuss some practical steps we can take to make disciples for Jesus.

September 26—The church exists to build each other up. We can't make this Christian journey alone, we need each other. The church is the body of Christ for the world and for each other. We will discover what it means to build each other up and learn ways to build each other up.
